

AMERICAN TROOPS CLASH WITH VILLAS FIGHTING BEGINS

Word Expected Daily That Villa Has Been Forced To Make a Stand

Pershing Believes Villa Will be Brought to Bay Soon—Important Developments are Pending—Villa Has Been Wounded in the Leg

San Antonio, March 31.—(By United Press)—American troops have clashed with Villistas. General Funston today received this from an authentic though unofficial source. Villa has been located working along the railroad which bends eastward south of Guerrero. The Americans and Villistas have exchanged shots. Funston is certain that actual fighting has occurred. Reports from the American army headquarters at Dublin said there was a distinct feeling in General Pershing's office this afternoon that Villa would soon be brought to bay and important developments are pending.

Funston's advice all state clearly that Carranzistas and Americans were working harmoniously in pursuit of the bandit. Another report exploded today was the assassination of Mayor Rodriguez who was said yesterday to have been shot at Ojinaga.

Because of the rapidity of the American advance, word is now daily expected that Villa is being forced to make a stand. If the troops ever get within fighting distance, there is little doubt here of the outcome. Later reports of the fighting near Guerrero stated that the Carranzistas inflicted considerable loss on Villa's men.

El Paso, March 31.—(By United Press)—Panco Villa, wounded in one leg, was today riding desperately toward the mountains. Villistas in western Chihuahua with Colonel Dodd's cavalry at his heels, it was indicated today in reports to General Gaviro at Juarez. The bandit is said to have gathered around him his best mounted men for the final dash to cover.

General Caginas, commander of the Guerrero garrison denied today that there had been any massacre there. Reports that Villa had executed five persons on the Carralistas ranch were also uncredited. Reports reaching Juarez seemed to agree that Villa was wounded while raiding Guerrero. No loss of life among the Carranza garrison was mentioned by Gaviro who said that Villa was quickly repulsed.

Another Massacre Rumored
An unconfirmed rumor reached here this afternoon that Villa murdered several Americans at Minaca ten miles south of Guerrero. Army men and Mexican northwestern railway officials were attempting to get definite news.

HONOR MEMORY OF FIRST BISHOP.

Washington, D. C., March 31.—Advices received here indicate a nationwide observance of the centennial anniversary of the death of Bishop Francis Asbury, the first Methodist Bishop in America and the founder of Wesleyan Methodism in the new world. Bishop Asbury's death occurred at Richmond, Va., one hundred years ago today. Arrangements for an appropriate observance of the anniversary by Methodist churches throughout the country were made by a general committee of which Bishop Earl Cranston, of this city acted as chairman.

BROWN, THE TAILOR SAYS:

"If the truth's a knock, then keep the hammer moving." We want to drive one nail home. New York is the style center of the Universe. It has Paris, London and even Clearfield beaten a mile. That's why we say, "If you want style and real clothes value, order your clothes in Clearfield but have them made in New York."

CHRISTOPHER JR. TO BE GIVEN BY THE JUNIOR CLASS

Practice Rapidly Progressing on Play Cast Is Composed of Best Talent in High School

Play Will be Given in Opera House April Seven—Leading Role Is Being Taken by Albert Kennard—Ona Froyd Will Play Leading Lady's Part.

Practice is rapidly progressing on "Christopher Junior," the play which the Junior class of the High school will present in the Opera House on April 7th. The cast was picked about two weeks ago by some of the faculty of the school and consists of some of the best dramatic talent of Clearfield.

The play is a rollicking comedy, which has been successfully presented at London and New York under the management of Charles Frohman. John Drew played the leading role, Christopher Junior, and Maude Adams took the leading lady's part, Dora. After being played by professionals it was presented by college and high school dramatic clubs all over the country with great success.

It is a play well adapted for the presentation by high school students. It is comical throughout and will keep the entire audience in a state of laughter from start to finish. Christopher Junior, the principal character, is the son of a wealthy merchant of England. He is secretly married, and when his father finds this out, he disowns him and offers him a position in Bombay which the son accepts. The last two acts with their settings in Bombay are intensely interesting. In these acts the son gets out of his roubles in a clever manner.

The following is the cast which will present this play:

Synopsis.

Act I.—Christopher, Jr.'s apartment in Grosvenor Gardens, London.
Act II.—Christopher, Sr.'s reception room of his home in Devonshire.
Act III.—The Major's quarters in Bombay. (Six weeks are supposed to elapse.)

Intermission one minute.
Act IV.—The same as Act III. Time—The present.

AMBASSADORS SAY SECRET U. S. CODE IS KNOWN

Protest That Belligerent Nations Know Secret Code

Berlin, March 31.—(By United Press)—Ambassadors Gerard and Penfield and Minister Van Dyke at the Hague have joined in the protest to the state department against continued use of the present diplomatic code. The state department at Washington replying to a recent United States secret code was known to several of the European belligerents, insisted that secret dispatches could still be sent. That is what the department always says, said an American official fully in touch with the situation today.

TWO WOMEN BURNED TO DEATH IN BIG FIRE

Lawrence, Mass.—(By United Press)—Two women lost their lives and a third was so badly burned that she will die in a fire which destroyed the residence of Jak Katz, a former Porto Rico millionaire, early today. Mrs. Albert Currier aged 70, and her daughter Abbie, aged 45, were burned to death. Mrs. Jak Katz, wife of the millionaire, is in a serious condition at the Lawrence general hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Devling, of Woodland, were in attendance at the Odd Fellows banquet last night.

LODGE CELEBRATES 70TH ANNIVERSARY WITH BIG BANQUET

Odd Fellows Hold Banquet in Dimeling Hotel—Nearly 200 Guests were Present

Excellent Literary and Musical Program Was Given in Ball Room—Miss Norris Sings Beautiful Solo—Turkey Dinner Served in Dining Hall.

Lodge No. 198 of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows banqueted last night at the Dimeling in celebration of the seventieth anniversary of the lodge in Clearfield. One hundred and seventy eight Odd Fellows, wives and lady friends heard an excellent literary and musical program in the Dimeling ball room and then repaired to the dining room to a sumptuous turkey dinner.

The musical program was rendered by the Susquehanna College of Music orchestra, assisted by Miss Anne Norris, who delighted the audience with two excellently rendered vocal selections. Miss Bowes and Miss Fletcher added to the mirth of the occasion with readings and recitations which brought forth thunderous applause.

An historical sketch of the order in Clearfield was given by Rev. John P. McCurdy which was thoroughly complete and showed that Mr. McCurdy had given a great deal of time to its preparation. Notable facts in the history are that the lodge was instituted in the attic of the Old Mansion House which occupied the site where the Dimeling now stands. It was very fitting indeed that the seventieth anniversary banquet should be held on the very birthplace of the Clearfield lodge. The lodge started with only five members, just enough to act as officers and now it numbers three hundred eighty two.

Along with the historical sketch Mr. McCurdy introduced a number of good stories and gave a number of reminiscences. Altogether Mr. McCurdy made a decided hit.

This story would not be complete without a word about the guest of honor, Alex Livingston, who has been an active member of Clearfield lodge for fifty nine years. At the first mention of his name he was given such a hearty ovation that many a younger man devoutly wished that he, when old age beset him, would be held in the same veneration and respect that Mr. Livingston now is held. Surely no greater reward can come to man on earth than that of being held in veneration and respect by his brother men, and that feeling he publicly acknowledged as it was to Mr. Livingston.

MORE STATE OFFICIALS EXPECTED TO RESIGN

Speculation Over Johnson's Successor Very Keen Today

Harrisburg, March 31.—(By United Press)—Governor Brumbaugh may receive further resignations from officials of the state. It was whispered in cabinet circles today that others who felt that too much pressure is being put upon them by partisan leaders, were soon to follow the steps of Insurance Commissioner Charles Johnson took yesterday. Speculation over Johnson's successor was not keen today due probably to the fact that the department is in charge of deputy commissioner Samuel McCullough who has long been recognized as its chief active head and there is no necessity for an immediate appointment.

DR. WAITE INDICTED

New York, March 31.—(By United Press)—Dr. Arthur W. Waite was today indicted on a charge of murder in the first degree for the poisoning of John E. Peck, his millionaire father-in-law, of Grand Rapids, Michigan.

The indictment was returned before Judge Nott in the court of general sessions and following a conference hearing of the evidence in the case by the grand jury since Monday. On account of Waite's illness he probably will not be arraigned until Monday. He continues to show physical improvement. If the usual custom is followed the case will go to Supreme court for trial. Action will be as rapid as the crowded court calendar permits.

A Hero of Science

Dr. Carlos E. Husk of El Paso was one of the physicians sent by the Guggenheim interests into Mexico to establish hospitals for the cure of the typhus which rages over the northern part of the country. He broke a vital of typhus germs and caught the disease. Though he was hurried to Laredo he died there.

YOUNG CLEARFIELD BOY DIES AT PITTSBURGH

Jack Strayer Succumbs to Bronchitis While Visiting Relatives

Jack Strayer, the two years old son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Strayer, died at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Hippler, of Pittsburgh, Thursday morning from bronchitis, after a 3 week's illness. The remains were brought to Clearfield last evening on the six o'clock train and taken to the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Strayer of Cemetery Road.

Funeral services will be held from the St. Francis church Saturday morning at ten o'clock. Interment will be made in the old Catholic cemetery.

CLEAN-UP GANG GIVING STREETS SPRING BATH

The borough clean-up crew started to work this morning removing the dirt and filth from the principal streets of Clearfield which has been accumulating during the winter months. Street Commissioner Graham has four men working on Market street and Second streets removing the debris with the fire hose and hauling away the snow which has been lying along the side of the streets. After thoroughly cleansing the streets in the center of the borough the crew will start on those in the outer parts.

DEADLOCK IN CONFERENCE HAS NOT BEEN BROKEN YET

Conference Adjourned Until Next Tuesday—Sub-Committee Still in Session

The deadlock in the conference of the miners and operators at Philadelphia has not been broken. The sub-committees are still in session working on a new scale which will be submitted to the joint conference. This afternoon the conference adjourned until next Tuesday morning. No suspension of work in this section is expected.

NO SUSPENSION IN ANTHRACITE MINERS

Pottsville, March 31.—(By United Press)—Despite the fact it has been announced that the representatives of the anthracite coal miners and the anthracite operators have agreed that there shall be no suspension of work at the mines pending the outcome of the negotiations for a new agreement, many of the foreigners of the lower anthracite region were today removing their tools from the mines. They seemed to think that once no agreement had been entered into, they should go on strike.

NO UN-INSTRUCTED G.O.P. DELEGATION FROM PENNSYLVANIA

Every Candidate For Delegate Must Specify Whether He Will Support Choice

Candidate Must Pledge Himself to be Guided by Highest Vote for the Presidential Candidate or Appear on Ballot as Not Pledging Himself.

Harrisburg, March 30.—There can be no un-instructed delegation from Pennsylvania to the Republican National convention at Chicago and all reports of statements to the contrary are intended to mislead and confuse the voters.

In consequence of changes made in the election laws, every candidate for delegate to the Republican National convention must specify on the ballot whether or not he will support the popular choice of the party for the Presidential nomination.

Delegates at large must specify that they do or do not promise to support the popular choice in the state, while delegates from the district must likewise pledge themselves as to the choice in their respective sections.

Under these provisions there is no escape for "trust-me" candidates. It is impossible now for a candidate for delegate to have his name and nothing after it on the ballot as was the case four years ago. The changes in the law now make it certain that the people shall know what to expect of the delegates whom they select and provide an absolute means for choosing delegates in harmony with their choice for Presidential nomination.

On the ballot after the name of the candidate will appear the words "promises to support the popular choice of the party" or "does not promise to support the popular choice of the party," just as the candidate for delegate prefers to be listed. Under these provisions there is no possible way for a delegate to escape, as the word "shall" is used throughout the Act.

A candidate must pledge himself to be guided by the highest vote for Presidential candidate or he must appear on the ballot as not pledging himself.

For delegate-at-large the preference vote of the whole state will count; for a district candidate the vote of that district will determine.

EVIDENCE IN SUBMARINE INVESTIGATION LACKING

Washington, March 31.—(By United Press)—The United States government is not in possession of proof on which to base any formal charge against Germany on the submarine activity in the English channel. The cabinet today passed on a mass of circumstantial evidence tending to indicate that a German submarine attacked without warning the unarmed channel packet Sussex. Positive evidence, however, is lacking, it was declared. Until positive evidence is at hand the United States will not take any action.

FRENCH TROOPS EVACUATE IMPORTANT POSITIONS

London, March 31.—(By United Press)—French troops have evacuated all but the east and south outskirts of the village of Malancourt according to Paris dispatches today. Heavy German artillery pounding having made the position untenable. The village in the highway intersection is being swept by a fierce French artillery fire preventing the Germans from occupying the position.

The fortified position of Malancourt and the defenses on both sides have been stormed and captured by German troops, the war office announced this afternoon. The Germans took 328 prisoners.

The Germans have lost 29,000 men in the renewal of the Verdun struggle on both sides of the Meuse, several French military experts stated. Several battalions were wiped out in an effort to capture Malancourt. French guns on hill 304 tore such gaps in the charging lines that after the Germans had secured a foothold in the village they were unable from lack of men, to follow up the drive.

Dale Chaplin, who has been confined to his home with scarlet fever is now able to be out.

PROPRIETORS OF POOL ROOM ARE FREED OF CHARGE

Squire Chorpeneing Found No True Charge Against Proprietors Last Evening

About Fifty Witnesses Testified That They Had Gambled in Pool Rooms But Without the Knowledge of Proprietors.

'Squire Chorpeneing last evening discharged the three pool room proprietors, Healey, Irwin and Goss who were arrested Wednesday evening by County Detective Jeffries, charged with permitting "Kelly Pool" to be played on their tables. Detective Jeffries brought the charges against the proprietors on evidence furnished him by deputy county detectives.

The case against Mr. Healey was the first to be brought up. It was charged that on March 4 and many other times he permitted gambling on his tables. About twenty witnesses were brought up by the prosecuting side to prove that the gambling was permitted but on cross examination of the witnesses it was established that the players had been gambling but without the knowledge of Mr. Healey.

The case against Mr. Goss was then brought up but after examining six witnesses, District Attorney Welsh asked for the discharge of the defendant as he was in another room at the time the gambling was going on. 'Squire Chorpeneing discharged the defendant immediately.

After the discharge of Mr. Goss the case against Mr. Irwin was brought up. About fifteen witnesses testified that they had gambled in this room but did it secretly so that Mr. Irwin would not know of it.

District Attorney Welsh asked the two defendants, Healey and Irwin, be bound for court. After heated argument between Mr. Healey and A. R. Chase, attorney for the defendants, 'Squire Chorpeneing charged the defendants saying that the prosecuting side had failed to prove the gambling occurred with the knowledge of the defendants as that the case of Mr. Goss was identical with those of Mr. Healey and Mr. Irwin.

DEPARTMENT CLERKS PREPARING FOR RUSH

Harrisburg, March 31.—With less than three weeks remaining with which candidates may file nominating petitions with the secretary of the commonwealth, state department clerks are preparing for the usual rush.

Petitions up to date have not run more than a dozen per day; sometimes only one or two have come in twenty-four hours. Probably the number for the next week will not be especially heavy, but as the time grows short the flood will swell. April 18 is the last day for filing petitions with the secretary of the commonwealth; petitions may be filed with county commissioners a week later.

DUPONT WILL BE CHOICE OF THE BUSINESS MEN

Business Men's League Formed to Get Nomination of Candidates

New York, March 31.—(By United Press)—Coleman Dupont for President and Henry D. Eatelbrook for vice president, both standing upon business platforms, that was the slate put before the Republicans today by Ormsby McHugh and his friends who have organized a business men's league with the object of forcing the Republican convention to nominate their candidates. The bomb went off with a great splurge of newspaper advertising.

INTENSE INTEREST BEING AROUSED IN LOCAL CONTENT

Exceptionally Attractive and Ingenious Window Displays Expected in October

Tremendous Amounts are Expected For Window Trimming—Thousands Paced on Windows by City Merchants—Judges Will be Announced Soon.

"The talk of the town" today was the Window Trimming Contest of the city. It will be officially opened on October 1st and will continue until November 1st when the awards of the contest will be made. The contest is being held by the city merchants and is expected to be one of the most successful and profitable of the season.

As evidence of the interest in the contest, the city merchants have already placed on their windows thousands of dollars worth of window displays. The contest is expected to be one of the most successful and profitable of the season.

The New York specialty shop will place its six windows at 400,000, a Wamsutter store at 300,000, a value its windows at 275,000 a year. A high department store considers its windows worth 100,000 a year.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, New York, nearly valuation on their windows. In Pittsburgh, a store does so much to place value on its windows, while in New York, Buffalo, Detroit, and other cities, the contest is being held by the city merchants and is expected to be one of the most successful and profitable of the season.

But these valuations are not as proved by the actual sales directly transmitted to the exhibitors of window displays. The contest is expected to be one of the most successful and profitable of the season.

Through a window display from 10 women's dresses and with a price from $15 to $50 in a day. Another store has sold 100 coats in a day, 4000 worth of women's hand bags, 345 men's suits in a day from these windows.

When attractive windows are put in a retailer such benefits the Chamber of Commerce feels daily by urging every merchant to enter in the window display contest. It is expected that any movement to increase the material production of a group of merchants will increase the production of the town.

Through this contest, the Chamber of Commerce is expected to help local merchants to get the same time can display their goods up to the importance of displays to them as business men in finding rare values, they are expending by the contest. This contest will have a great while.

The secretary will be glad to give additional information regarding the contest to any person desiring it.

Druggists Here Have Something New for Colds

Applied Externally, the Body Heat Releases Soothing Antiseptic Medicated Vapors.

COLDS GO OVERNIGHT, CROUP IN 15 MINUTES.

Local Druggists are Selling it on 30 Days' Trial. Your Money Back if it is Not Better Than Internal Medicines.

Since its introduction here a short time ago, the new treatment for cold troubles, known as Vich's "Vap-O-Rub" Salve, has aroused a great deal of interest among local people, especially among mothers with small children.

Local druggists report that numbers have taken advantage of their 30-day trial offer to see if "Vap-O-Rub" really will relieve these troubles quicker than internal medicine.

For croup, coughs, head colds, sore throat or bronchitis, apply "Vap-O-Rub" over the throat and chest, covering with a warm flannel cloth. Leave the covering loose around the neck so the vapors arising may be freely inhaled. In addition, "Vap-O-Rub" is absorbed through the skin, taking out that tightness and soreness. For head colds, catarrh, hay fever or asthmatic troubles, "Vap-O-Rub" can be either applied to the nostrils, or a little melted in a spoon, and the vapors inhaled. You have to try this treatment to realize its remarkable effect in all cases of cold troubles.

THOMAS W. LAWSON'S SON

JUDGE AT DOG SHOW

Chicago, March 30.—(By United Press)—Two "little sons of the rich" are judging the merits and demerits of fancy dogs at the fifteenth annual bench exhibit of the Chicago Kennel club here today. Arnold Lawson, son of Thomas W. Lawson, Boston, is putting down the black and white marks for the English bulldogs, and Marvin Hughitt, Jr., son of Marvin Hughitt, president of the North-Western railroad, is judging the classes for pointers and setters. Dr. J. E. Demund, Brooklyn, N. Y., is judging several classes. The exhibit will close April 1.

RECIPE TO CLEAR A PIMPLY SKIN

Pimples are Impurities Seeking an Outlet Through Skin Pores

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins; poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate, then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples.

The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity, thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities and cleaning the skin of pimples.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear; cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys as well.

If you knew what we know, you would be using Masury's Sanitary Flat finish. Step in and let us tell you about it. Take home a color card.

The United North and South open championship will be contested Saturday and will be followed two days later by the opening of the United North and South amateur championship tournament.

EXCITED WHISPERS ABOUT SOCIETY GIRLS COSTUMES!

New York, March 30.—(By United Press)—S-s-sh! Sister Susie's sibilant whisper is sissing and hissing excitedly around the outskirts of Gotham's high society today, telling about those carnival costumes the ultra-fashionable girls are going to wear to the Mi-Carmene ball at Sherry's tonight. Now don't tell a soul, but—well! YOU know how high the skirts and how low the necks they are wearing on the STREET. Well! And in the middle of Lent, too! Isn't it shocking? But, gee! I'd like to be there.

MEETING OF IOWA TEACHERS

Waterloo, Iowa, March 30.—The twenty-second annual meeting of the Northeastern Iowa Teachers' Association began its sessions in this city today, with an unusually large attendance of visiting teachers. The names of several educators of wide prominence appear on the three-day program.

BIG INDOOR MEET AT OMAHA

Omaha, Neb., March 30.—The annual indoor track and field meet of the Omaha Y. M. C. A., to be held in the Municipal Auditorium tomorrow night, promises to be a record-breaker in point of interest aroused, the number of entries received and the attendance. A total of more than 500 athletes are expected to compete for honors in the various events. They will include representatives of many of the Missouri Valley colleges, numerous athletic clubs, an practically all of the Y. M. C. A.'s of Nebraska and Iowa.

DOG SHOW OPENS IN CHICAGO

Chicago, Ill., March 30.—The exclusive set in the dog world stepped to the front in the First Regiment Armory today, when the annual bench show of the Chicago Kennel Club opened, to continue until Saturday night. In the matter of entries the exhibition is probably the most notable of its kind ever held in the West. Prominent kennels in every section of the country have sent their prize-winners to the show and among the exhibits are blue-blooded specimens of virtually every breed known to the dog fancier.

Women Workers Await Primary Campaigning

Suffragists to Carry Out State-Wide Plan to Put All Candidates on Record—Will Work in May for Success of Those Endorsing Equal Franchise

Lasten days of 1916 will be fraught with more serious import than the same season of any previous years so far as suffragists of the state are concerned. Consequently, Easter hats, Easter gowns and Easter bouquets, in respect, are of secondary import. All this is because women of all sections of the State identified with the suffrage cause are awaiting detailed instructions concerning their campaigning in the May primaries.

At the recent conference of suffrage workers at Harrisburg, Pa., delegates adopted a general plan to put all candidates on record; to work for those who announce they will support suffrage in the Legislature and Congress and oppose those not in favor of equal franchise. Just how this is to be done will be embodied in the instructions now being completed.

Every aspirant for public office must take a stand upon woman suffrage, said one official of the state organization, for every voter has a right to know the opinion of those who seek their support.

The suffragists hold that their showing at the last election when they carried 23 counties and polled more than 885,000 votes entitles them and those who have voted for them to serious consideration.

The 1916 campaign of the suffragists, Mrs. George W. Dibert, chairman of the Woman Suffrage Party of Pennsylvania, announces, will be vigorous and extend through the primaries and the ensuing election.

"We have decided," Mrs. Dibert says, "to conduct a non-partisan campaign as in the past and the only lines we will draw will be to separate those candidates and later those nominees who are for or against woman suffrage."

"Since our last campaign more women than ever are enthusiastic over our prospects, and men, who, at that time, were against us have announced a change of heart. Many who were apathetic have announced that they are convinced the majority of men and women in the State believe the demands of the suffragists are based upon justice and fair play. They realize that an opposition based chiefly upon the claim that women do not want to vote no longer has weight. Women who do not want to vote need not and the men realize that the old arguments are flat. With the more than 350,000 men who voted in our favor, together with the thousands more now convinced, we will win our battle when the issue comes to the polls again."

NEW CHANCE FOR SUFFRAGE RESOLUTION IN CONGRESS

According to a dispatch from Mrs. Frank M. Roessing, former head of the State suffrage association and now working in Washington, D. C., as an officer of the national organization, the Susan B. Anthony woman suffrage amendment resolution will have another chance for action in the current session of Congress.

This development, according to Mrs. Roessing's message to state suffrage headquarters at Harrisburg, Pa., is the result of a decision by the House Rules Committee to reconsider, March 28, its recent action postponing consideration of the amendment resolution until December.

Mrs. Roessing says she and other national officers are certain the final action by the committee will be favorable. In view of the fact that the passage of the resolution by Congress requires subsequent action by state legislatures, Pennsylvania suffragists are doubly interested in their local campaign to elect legislators who endorse suffrage.

Danish Women Voters Welcomed by Politicians.

Mr. Edward Brandes, of the Danish Parliament, recently welcomed the new women voters of Copenhagen into the arena of politics. He said: "In some quarters, it is held that Woman Suffrage will ruin the happiness of the home. That is only nonsense, for there will be a stronger union when the wife actively shares the husband's political interest. There will be no more a woman's party in Parliament than there is a man's party."

Another speaker mentioned that this had already shown itself at the municipal elections. "One never sees so many couples arm-in-arm as on the day of election—even before breakfast."

OUR IDEA OF NOTHING AT ALL.

Mr. Webb, of North Carolina: I am opposed to woman suffrage, but I am not opposed to woman.

O. women, have you heard the news of charity and grace? Look, look how joy and gratitude are beaming in my face! For Mr. Webb is not opposed to woman in her place!

O. Mr. Webb, how kind you are to let us live at all. To let us light the kitchen range and tidy up the hall. To tolerate the female sex in spite of Adam's fall.

O. girls, suppose that Mr. Webb should alter his decree! Should he be opposed to us—Opposed to you and me! What would be left for us to do—Except to cease to be?

EVOLUTION

Said Mr. Jones in 1910, "Women, subject yourselves to men." Nineteen-eleven heard him quote, "They rule the world without the vote."

By nineteen-twelve, he would submit "When all the women wanted it." By nineteen-thirteen, looking glum, He said that it was bound to come. This year I heard him say with pride: "No reasons on the other side!" By nineteen-twenty he'll insist: He's always been a suffragist. And what is really stranger, too, He'll think that what he says is true.

South Plans Big Social Conference

New Orleans, La., March 31.—Elaborate preparations are being made for the fifth annual session of the Southern Sociological Congress, which is to assemble in this city two weeks hence. The conference this year, it is asserted, will surpass any gathering of its kind ever held in this country. The fact that the meeting will be followed a few days later by the Southern Conference for Education and Industry is expected to increase the attendance and add to the interest in the proceedings.

In the Southern Sociological Congress leading statesmen, educators, editors, lawyers, physicians, preachers, farmers, manufacturers, merchants, public-spirited and thoughtful men and women of all professions and from all walks of life, meet to discuss in a broad, practical, non-technical way the vital problems of social life in their application to conditions in the Southern States.

Though the organization is simple and the conduct of the meetings largely informal, its influence has been great, and it has gathered unto itself a large number of departments and subordinate organizations which look to it as a source of their inspiration and the medium through which their particular objects are best set forth and brought into relation with the whole social welfare of the South.

While the coming meeting will discuss problems of special interest to the South, the attendance will not be confined to citizens of the Southern States. The importance of such gatherings and their educational value have in the past attracted men and women from all parts of the United States and from numerous foreign countries, and the attendance this year is expected to be the most representative one in the history of the movement.

The program of the congress will cover four days. During the mornings there will be ten separate conferences in session simultaneously. The conference on "Government and Health," will be presided over by Dr. Seale Harris, of Birmingham, Ala. The conference on "School and Health," will be presided over by Dean J. L. Kesler, of Baylor University. The conference on "The Medical Profession and Health," will be presided over by Dr. W. S. Rankin, of Raleigh, N. C., a distinguished public health officer.

Unique in its way will be the conference on "The Press and Health," presided over by George Waverly Briggs, of Galveston. This conference will be for the purpose of developing ways in which the press may be enlisted to take a more active part in the struggle for better health. The conference on "Race Relations and Health," will be in charge of Dr. James Hardy Dillard, of Charlottesville, Va., and here will be discussed the great problem of bettering the health of the negro population.

In addition to those enumerated there will be a conference on "Temperance and Health," which will be a council of war for the temperance forces of Dixie, and which will be in charge of a special commission, of which Dr. Dinwiddie, of Washington, is secretary; another conference on "The Teaching of Sociology in Southern Colleges," presided over by Dr. G. W. Dyer, of Vanderbilt University; a conference on "Travelers' Aid Work," as a means of conserving health, to be in charge of Orin C. Baker, of New York, and a conference on "The Church and Health," presided over by Bishop Walter R. Lambuth, of California.

Of greatest general interest will be the organization of a new commission to have charge of a conference on lynching, the chairman to be Dr. C. M. Bishop, president of Southwestern University. The president of every university and college in the South will be invited to become a member of this commission.

More than 2,000 delegates are expected to attend the congress and among them will be the governors of several States and mayors of numerous cities. A number of foreign countries have been asked to appoint delegates to the congress, among them Mexico, Cuba, Guatemala, Panama, Nicaragua, Haiti, Salvador and Costa Rica. Several of these countries have notified Dr. J. E. McCulloch, the general secretary, that they will send delegates to the congress.

ACCUSED OF PEONAGE.

Atlanta, Ga., March 31.—The case of R. P. Biggers, a prominent farmer of Rockdale, who was indicted by Federal grand jury on a charge of peonage, was called for trial in the United States district court here today. It is alleged that Biggers worked negroes under bondage in violation of the law. A score or more witnesses have been summoned to testify at the trial.

ROSS & WOODS

ON THE SCREEN

While the fairy tale by De La Motte Fouquet is the basis of the Bluebird photoplay "Undine," which will be the attraction at the Opera House on Monday evening, Walter Woods in working out the scenario, found the story could not be translated in full detail to the screen. When Director Henry Otto set to work upon the actual production he also discovered that little of the original could be used save the salient details of the plot.

Here in brief is given what has remained of the fairy-tale in photoplay form. The story begins in the realm of Queen Unda, mistress of the under-seas, surrounded by her nymphs, sylphs and mermaids, who disport themselves on the sands and in the waters of the deep. Bertholda, daughter of a fisherman and his devoted wife, has been stolen by the mermaids one day when the child is playing upon the sands. Queen Unda rules that little Bertholda shall be left to roam in the Enchanted Forest because her parents have taken fishes from the ocean, greatly to the annoyance of Unda and Neptune.

Undine's mother has committed sin with a mortal and to atone for this her little baby, Undine, is taken to the shore near the fisherman's cottage, to be discovered by fisherman and his wife. It is Undine's mission on earth to marry a mortal and thus atone for the sins committed by her mother in loving a handsome young huntsman, whose untimely death likewise robs Undine's mother of her own life.

Undine is welcomed by the fisherman and his wife, who considers she has been sent by the gods to take the place of their little Bertholda. Fifteen years pass. Bertholda has been adopted by the Duke and Duchess, and among those who pay her court at the Castle of Hubbrand, Undine was good. McNally replied: "I expect to build more barges." He already has to.

Don't Crowd Your Ad.

By BREEN.

Some advertisers make the mistake of trying to crowd a page of type into a few inches.

Display your ad. Make it catchy.

If you buy a few inches in a newspaper don't try to make them carry a couple of hundred words. Newspaper readers will not wear strong glasses to read small type.

When you decide to advertise a certain article pick out its best points. Then briefly tell what they are. Emphasize in big type.

Fashion Hints By Margaret Mason

A tondril of Camilla's hair

Caressed her neck in manner rare

I begged of her the shining strand

And stretched it with a tender hand

Then when perverse she said no nay

I snipped that golden curl away

But when Camilla saw it there

The lovely curl she used to wear

Her parting lips began to twitch

"There now," she sobbed, "you've spoiled my switch."

New York, March 31.—Little, alluring, wholly feminine, fascinating frivolous curls are coming in again.

To bob their wee fat sausage leathers in front of a pair of pink ears, to top in a bewitching cluster of tiny cockerels the crown of a dainty young head or to nestle in one sinuous tendril in that delectable hollow between a dimpled shoulder and a rounded throat.

Yes, they are coming in, but it is safe to predict that the most of them will easily come out again. Curls such as these are easier pinned in than grown in at the whimsies of the mode.

They are sure to be hailed with delight by all the purveyors of human hair who have suffered two lean years from the penchant for pealed cloffures an naturelle, with no false hair allowed.

To be sure hair is still to be worn peeled and slicked back from the feminine brow, but the softening influence of an occasional stray curl or two is a concession to the frills and ruffles and hoops and bouffants of the present old-fashioned fashions.

Particularly are the bonnets responsible for the recurrence of curls and the Shepherds' poke or Watteau shape is mother to the Nineteenth century which consists simply in drawing the hair back smoothly from the face into a cluster of soft puffs at the crown of the head with a few clustering inglets escaping at the nape of the neck.

Just to make it even more piquant a narrow black velvet ribbon is tied around the cluster of puffs on the head's pinnacle.

Another popular high head dress is the bob with the hair waved and parted in front with three short curls over each ear and a soft fan like puff for a top knot.

A low head dress with two fat sausage curls to bob over either ear has the rest of the hair drawn smoothly back into a tiny bun.

Flowers in the hair is to be another revived flogging vine fashion. And the roses of June will be worn in lush rosettes or squalls, rosy or white garlands of the smaller flower, will crown the Lilies, Pansies and Myrtles of the human family.

The bands that bind will still continue on the job and the brow in the form of pivot edged ribbon or velvet with a little love knot behind.

Truly this mad preference for love knots and love locks augurs a certain variety and piquancy for the breach of promises cases of the near future.

To lighten the monotony of the eternal love letters with a love knot of rose ribbon or a tendril of burnished hair surely ought to influence all Jaded jurors for the new hair modes as well as the hair merchants and ribbon clerks.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Gray. Faded Hair Dark and Glossy

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur properly compounded, brings back the natural color and shine to the hair when much grayed or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and trouble some.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application of two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

BANKERS' PREDICTIONS TO SOLDIER COME TRUE

London, March 31.—(By United Press)—An English army officer was starting for the front last year. He called at his bank to settle up certain affairs before departing.

"You'll be back soon with a wounded hand," said the bank manager. He was.

His wound healed, the officer made ready to go back to the front. Meeting the bank manager, he inquired: "Any more predictions?"

"You'll be gone longer this time," said the manager, "and when you do return, it will be with quite a bad wound in the leg."

This also happened. The officer was much surprised. Hunting up the banker, he inquired: "Since you know so much, why can't you tell me when the war will end?"

"It will end," said the manager, "on June 17, 1916, but I shall live to see it. I'll just about live until New Year's day and not much more," he died January 2.

The London Financial News, a very sober, unimaginative, reliable newspaper, vouches for this story.

AMERICAN TROOPS CLASH WITH VILLAS FIGHTING BEGINS

Word Expected Daily That Villa Has Been Forced To Make a Stand

Pershing Believes Villa Will be Brought to Bay Soon—Important Developments are Pending—Villa Has Been Wounded in the Leg

San Antonio, March 31.—(By United Press)—American troops have clashed with Villistas. General Funston today received this from an authentic though unofficial source. Villa has been located working along the railroad which bends eastward south of Guerrero. The Americans and Villistas have exchanged shots. Funston is certain that actual fighting has occurred. Reports from the American army headquarters at Dublin said there was a distinct feeling in General Pershing's office this afternoon that Villa would soon be brought to bay and important developments are pending.

Funston's advice all state clearly that Carranzistas and Americans were working harmoniously in pursuit of the bandit. Another report exploded today was the assassination of Mayor Rodriguez who was said yesterday to have been shot at Ojinaga.

Because of the rapidity of the American advance, word is now daily expected that Villa is being forced to make a stand. If the troops ever get within fighting distance, there is little doubt here of the outcome. Later reports of the fighting near Guerrero stated that the Carranzistas inflicted considerable loss on Villa's men.

El Paso, March 31.—(By United Press)—Panco Villa, wounded in one leg, was today riding desperately toward the mountains. Villistas in western Chihuahua with Colonel Dodd's cavalry at his heels, it was indicated today in reports to General Gaviara at Juarez. The bandit is said to have gathered around him his best mounted men for the final dash to cover.

General Caginas, commander of the Guerrero garrison denied today that there had been any massacre there. Reports that Villa had executed five persons on the Carralistas ranch were also uncredited. Reports reaching Juarez seemed to agree that Villa was wounded while raiding Guerrero. No loss of life among the Carranza garrison was mentioned by Gaviara who said that Villa was quickly repulsed.

Another Massacre Rumored
An unconfirmed rumor reached here this afternoon that Villa murdered several Americans at Minaca ten miles south of Guerrero. Army men and Mexican northwestern railway officials were attempting to get definite news.

HONOR MEMORY OF FIRST BISHOP.

Washington, D. C., March 31.—Advices received here indicate a nationwide observance of the centennial anniversary of the death of Bishop Francis Asbury, the first Methodist Bishop in America and the founder of Wesleyan Methodism in the new world. Bishop Asbury's death occurred at Richmond, Va., one hundred years ago today. Arrangements for an appropriate observance of the anniversary by Methodist churches throughout the country were made by a general committee of which Bishop Earl Cranston, of this city acted as chairman.

BROWN, THE TAILOR SAYS:

"If the truth's a knock, then keep the hammer moving." We want to drive one nail home. New York is the style center of the Universe. It has Paris, London and even Clearfield beaten a mile. That's why we say, "If you want style and real clothes value, order your clothes in Clearfield but have them made in New York."

CHRISTOPHER JR. TO BE GIVEN BY THE JUNIOR CLASS

Practice Rapidly Progressing on Play Cast Is Composed of Best Talent in High School

Play Will be Given in Opera House April Seven—Leading Role is Being Taken by Albert Kennard—Ona Froyd will Play Leading Lady's Part.

Practice is rapidly progressing on "Christopher Junior," the play which the Junior class of the High school will present in the Opera House on April 7th. The cast was picked about two weeks ago by some of the faculty of the school and consists of some of the best dramatic talent of Clearfield.

The play is a rollicking comedy, which has been successfully presented at London and New York under the management of Charles Frohman. John Drew played the leading role, Christopher Junior, and Maude Adams took the leading lady's part, Dora. After being played by professionals it was presented by college and high school dramatic clubs all over the country with great success.

It is a play well adapted for the presentation by high school students. It is comical throughout and will keep the entire audience in a state of laughter from start to finish. Christopher Junior, the principal character, is the son of a wealthy merchant of England. He is secretly married, and when his father finds this out, he disowns him and offers him a position in Bombay which the son accepts. The last two acts with their settings in Bombay are intensely interesting. In these acts the son gets out of his roubles in a clever manner.

The following is the cast which will present this play:

Synopsis.

Act I.—Christopher, Jr.'s apartments in Grosvenor Gardens, London.
Act II.—Christopher, Sr.'s reception room of his home in Devonshire.
Act III.—The Major's quarters in Bombay. (Six weeks are supposed to elapse.)

Intermission one minute.

Act IV.—The same as Act III. Time—The present.

AMBASSADORS SAY SECRET U. S. CODE IS KNOWN

Protest That Belligerent Nations Know Secret Code

Berlin, March 31.—(By United Press)—Ambassadors Gerard and Penfield and Minister Van Dyke at the Hague have joined in the protest to the state department against continued use of the present diplomatic code. The state department at Washington replying to a recent United States secret code was known to several of the European belligerents, insisted that secret dispatches could still be sent. That is what the department always says, said an American official fully in touch with the situation today.

TWO WOMEN BURNED TO DEATH IN BIG FIRE

Lawrence, Mass.—(By United Press)—Two women lost their lives and a third was so badly burned that she will die in a fire which destroyed the residence of Jak Katz, a former Porto Rico millionaire, early today. Mrs. Albert Currier aged 70, and her daughter Abbie, aged 45, were burned to death. Mrs. Jak Katz, wife of the millionaire, is in a serious condition at the Lawrence general hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Devling, of Woodland, were in attendance at the Odd Fellows banquet last night.

LODGE CELEBRATES 70TH ANNIVERSARY WITH BIG BANQUET

Odd Fellows Hold Banquet in Dimeling Hotel—Nearly 200 Guests were Present

Excellent Literary and Musical Program Was Given in Ball Room—Miss Norris Sings Beautiful Solo—Turkey Dinner Served in Dining Hall.

Lodge No. 198 of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows banqueted last night at the Dimeling in celebration of the seventieth anniversary of the lodge in Clearfield. One hundred and seventy eight Odd Fellows, wives and lady friends heard an excellent literary and musical program in the Dimeling ball room and then repaired to the dining room to a sumptuous turkey dinner.

The musical program was rendered by the Susquehanna College of Music orchestra, assisted by Miss Anne Norris, who delighted the audience with two excellently rendered vocal selections. Miss Bowes and Miss Fletcher added to the mirth of the occasion with readings and recitations which brought forth thunderous applause.

An historical sketch of the order in Clearfield was given by Rev. John P. McCurdy which was thoroughly complete and showed that Mr. McCurdy had given a great deal of time to its preparation. Notable facts in the history are that the lodge was instituted in the attic of the Old Mansion House which occupied the site where the Dimeling now stands. It was very fitting indeed that the seventieth anniversary banquet should be held on the very birthplace of the Clearfield lodge. The lodge started with only five members, just enough to act as officers and now it numbers three hundred eighty two. Along with the historical sketch Mr. McCurdy introduced a number of good stories and gave a number of reminiscences. Altogether Mr. McCurdy made a decided hit.

This story would not be complete without a word about the guest of honor, Alex Livingston, who has been an active member of Clearfield lodge for fifty nine years. At the first mention of his name he was given such a hearty ovation that many a younger man devoutly wished that he, when old age beset him, would be held in the same veneration and respect that Mr. Livingston now is held. Surely no greater reward can come to man on earth than that of being held in veneration and respect by his brother men, and that feeling he publicly acknowledged as it was to Mr. Livingston.

MORE STATE OFFICIALS EXPECTED TO RESIGN

Speculation Over Johnson's Successor Very Keen Today

Harrisburg, March 31.—(By United Press)—Governor Brumbaugh may receive further resignations from officials of the state. It was whispered in cabinet circles today that others who felt that too much pressure is being put upon them by partisan leaders, were soon to follow the steps of Insurance Commissioner Charles Johnson took yesterday. Speculation over Johnson's successor was not keen today due probably to the fact that the department is in charge of deputy commissioner Samuel McCullough who has long been recognized as its chief active head and there is no necessity for an immediate appointment.

DR. WAITE INDICTED

New York, March 31.—(By United Press)—Dr. Arthur W. Waite was today indicted on a charge of murder in the first degree for the poisoning of John E. Peck, his millionaire father-in-law, of Grand Rapids, Michigan.

The indictment was returned before Judge Nott in the court of general sessions and following a confidential hearing of the evidence in the case by the grand jury since Monday. On account of Waite's illness he probably will not be arraigned until Monday. He continues to show physical improvement. If the usual custom is followed the case will go to Supreme court for trial. Action will be as rapid as the crowded court calendar permits.

Dr. Carlos E. Husk

Dr. Carlos E. Husk of El Paso was one of the physicians sent by the Guggenheim interests into Mexico to establish hospitals for the cure of the typhus which rages over the northern part of the country. He broke a vital of typhus germs and caught the disease. Though he was hurried to Laredo he died there.

YOUNG CLEARFIELD BOY DIES AT PITTSBURGH

Jack Strayer Succumbs to Bronchitis While Visiting Relatives

Jack Strayer, the two years old son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Strayer, died at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Hippler, of Pittsburgh, Thursday morning from bronchitis, after a 3 week's illness. The remains were brought to Clearfield last evening on the six o'clock train and taken to the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Strayer of Cemetery Road.

Funeral services will be held from the St. Francis church Saturday morning at ten o'clock. Interment will be made in the old Catholic cemetery.

CLEAN-UP GANG GIVING STREETS SPRING BATH

The borough clean-up crew started to work this morning removing the dirt and filth from the principal streets of Clearfield which has been accumulating during the winter months. Street Commissioner Graham has four men working on Market street and Second streets removing the debris with the fire hose and hauling away the snow which has been lying along the side of the streets. After thoroughly cleansing the streets in the center of the borough the crew will start on those in the outer parts.

DEADLOCK IN CONFERENCE HAS NOT BEEN BROKEN YET

Conference Adjourned Until Next Tuesday—Sub-Committee Still in Session

The deadlock in the conference of the miners and operators at Philadelphia has not been broken. The sub-committees are still in session working on a new scale which will be submitted to the joint conference. This afternoon the conference adjourned until next Tuesday morning. No suspension of work in this section is expected.

NO SUSPENSION IN ANTHRACITE MINERS

Pottsville, March 31.—(By United Press)—Despite the fact it has been announced that the representatives of the anthracite coal miners and the anthracite operators have agreed that there shall be no suspension of work at the mines pending the outcome of the negotiations for a new agreement, many of the foreigners of the lower anthracite region were today removing their tools from the mines. They seemed to think that once no agreement had been entered into, they should go on strike.

NO UN-INSTRUCTED G.O.P. DELEGATION FROM PENNSYLVANIA

Every Candidate For Delegate Must Specify Whether He Will Support Choice

Candidate Must Pledge Himself to be Guided by Highest Vote for the Presidential Candidate or Appear on Ballot as Not Pledging Himself.

Harrisburg, March 30.—There can be no un-instructed delegation from Pennsylvania to the Republican National convention at Chicago and all reports of statements to the contrary are intended to mislead and confuse the voters.

In consequence of changes made in the election laws, every candidate for delegate to the Republican National convention must specify on the ballot whether or not he will support the popular choice of the party for the Presidential nomination.

Delegates at large must specify that they do or do not promise to support the popular choice in the state, while delegates from the district must likewise pledge themselves as to the choice in their respective sections.

Under these provisions there is no escape for "trust-me" candidates. It is impossible now for a candidate for delegate to have his name and nothing after it on the ballot as was the case four years ago. The changes in the law now make it certain that the people shall know what to expect of the delegates whom they select and provide an absolute means for choosing delegates in harmony with their choice for Presidential nomination.

On the ballot after the name of the candidate will appear the words "promises to support the popular choice of the party" or "does not promise to support the popular choice of the party," just as the candidate for delegate prefers to be listed. Under these provisions there is no possible way for a delegate to escape, as the word "shall" is used throughout the Act.

A candidate must pledge himself to be guided by the highest vote for Presidential candidate or he must appear on the ballot as not pledging himself.

For delegate-at-large the preference vote of the whole state will count; for a district candidate the vote of that district will determine.

EVIDENCE IN SUBMARINE INVESTIGATION LACKING

Washington, March 31.—(By United Press)—The United States government is not in possession of proof on which to base any formal charge against Germany on the submarine activity in the English channel. The cabinet today passed on a mass of circumstantial evidence tending to indicate that a German submarine attacked without warning the unarmed channel packet Sussex. Positive evidence, however, is lacking, it was declared. Until positive evidence is at hand the United States will not take any action.

FRENCH TROOPS EVACUATE IMPORTANT POSITIONS

London, March 31.—(By United Press)—French troops have evacuated all but the east and south outskirts of the village of Malancourt according to Paris dispatches today. Heavy German artillery pounding having made the position untenable. The village in the highway intersection is being swept by a fierce French artillery fire preventing the Germans from occupying the position.

The fortified position of Malancourt and the defenses on both sides have been stormed and captured by German troops, the war office announced this afternoon. The Germans took 328 prisoners.

The Germans have lost 29,000 men in the renewal of the Verdun struggle on both sides of the Meuse, several French military experts stated. Several battalions were wiped out in an effort to capture Malancourt. French guns on hill 304 tore such gaps in the charging lines that after the Germans had secured a foothold in the village they were unable from lack of men, to follow up the drive.

Dale Chaplin, who has been confined to his home with scarlet fever is now able to be out.

PROPRIETORS OF POOL ROOM ARE FREED OF CHARGE

Squire Chorpeneing Found No True Charge Against Proprietors Last Evening

About Fifty Witnesses Testified That They Had Gambled in Pool Rooms But Without the Knowledge of Proprietors.

'Squire Chorpeneing last evening discharged the three pool room proprietors, Healey, Irwin and Goss who were arrested Wednesday evening by County Detective Jeffries, charged with permitting "Kelly Pool" to be played on their tables. Detective Jeffries brought the charges against the proprietors on evidence furnished him by deputy county detectives.

The case against Mr. Healey was the first to be brought up. It was charged that on March 4 and many other times he permitted gambling on his tables. About twenty witnesses were brought up by the prosecuting side to prove that the gambling was permitted but on cross examination of the witnesses it was established that the players had been gambling but without the knowledge of Mr. Healey.

The case against Mr. Goss was then brought up but after examining six witnesses, District Attorney Welsh asked for the discharge of the defendant as he was in another room at the time the gambling was going on. 'Squire Chorpeneing discharged the defendant immediately.

After the discharge of Mr. Goss the case against Mr. Irwin was brought up. About fifteen witnesses testified that they had gambled in this room but did it secretly so that Mr. Irwin would not know of it.

District Attorney Welsh asked the two defendants, Healey and Irwin, be bound for court. After heated argument between Mr. Healey and A. R. Chase, attorney for the defendants, 'Squire Chorpeneing charged the defendants saying that the prosecuting side had failed to prove the gambling occurred with the knowledge of the defendants as that the case of Mr. Goss was identical with those of Mr. Healey and Mr. Irwin.

DEPARTMENT CLERKS PREPARING FOR RUSH

Harrisburg, March 31.—With less than three weeks remaining with which candidates may file nominating petitions with the secretary of the commonwealth, state department clerks are preparing for the usual rush.

Petitions up to date have not run more than a dozen per day; sometimes only one or two have come in twenty-four hours. Probably the number for the next week will not be especially heavy, but as the time grows short the flood will swell. April 18 is the last day for filing petitions with the secretary of the commonwealth; petitions may be filed with county commissioners a week later.

6. Walk in the open air five or six miles a day.

DUPONT WILL BE CHOICE OF THE BUSINESS MEN

Business Men's League Formed to Get Nomination of Candidates

New York, March 31.—(By United Press)—Coleman Dupont for President and Henry D. Eatelbrook for vice president, both standing upon business platforms, that was the slate put before the Republicans today by Ormsby McHugh and his friends who have organized a business men's league with the object of forcing the Republican convention to nominate their candidates. The bomb went off with a great splurge of newspaper advertising.

Druggists Here Have Something New for Colds

Applied Externally, the Body Heat Releases Soothing Antiseptic Medicated Vapors.

COLDS GO OVERNIGHT, CROUP IN 15 MINUTES.

Local Druggists are Selling it on 30 Days' Trial. Your Money Back if it is Not Better Than Internal Medicines.

Since its introduction here a short time ago, the new treatment for cold troubles, known as Vapo-Rub, has aroused a great deal of interest among local people, especially among mothers with small children.

Local druggists report that numbers have taken advantage of their 30-day trial offer to see if "Vapo-Rub" really will relieve these troubles quicker than internal medicine.

For croup, coughs, head colds, sore throat or bronchitis, apply "Vapo-Rub" over the throat and chest, covering with a warm flannel cloth. Leave the covering loose around the neck so the vapors arising may be freely inhaled. In addition, "Vapo-Rub" is absorbed through the skin, taking out that tightness and soreness. For head colds, catarrh, hay fever or asthmatic troubles, "Vapo-Rub" can be either applied to the nostrils, or a little melted in a spoon, and the vapors inhaled. You have to try this treatment to realize its remarkable effect in all cases of cold troubles.

THOMAS W. LAWSON'S SON

JUDGE AT DOG SHOW

Chicago, March 30.—(By United Press)—Two "little sons of the rich" are judging the merits and demerits of fancy dogs at the fifteenth annual bench exhibit of the Chicago Kennel club here today. Arnold Lawson, son of Thomas W. Lawson, Boston, is putting down the black and white marks for the English bulldogs, and Marvin Hughitt, Jr., son of Marvin Hughitt, president of the North-Western railroad, is judging the classes for pointers and setters. Dr. J. E. Demund, Brooklyn, N. Y., is judging several classes. The exhibit will close April 1.

RECIPE TO CLEAR A PIMPLY SKIN

Pimples are Impurities Seeking an Outlet Through Skin Pores

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins; poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate, then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples.

The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity, thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities and cleaning the skin of pimples.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear; cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys as well.

If you knew what we know, you would be using Masury's Sanitary Flat finish. Step in and let us tell you about it. Take home a color card.

Women Workers Await Primary Campaigning

Suffragists to Carry Out State-Wide Plan to Put All Candidates on Record—Will Work in May for Success of Those Endorsing Equal Franchise

Lasten days of 1916 will be fraught with more serious import than the same season of any previous years so far as suffragists of the state are concerned. Consequently, Easter hats, Easter gowns and Easter bouquets, in respect, are of secondary import. All this is because women of all sections of the State identified with the suffrage cause are awaiting detailed instructions concerning their campaigning in the May primaries.

At the recent conference of suffrage workers at Harrisburg, Pa., delegates adopted a general plan to put all candidates on record; to work for those who announce they will support suffrage in the Legislature and Congress and oppose those not in favor of equal franchise. Just how this is to be done will be embodied in the instructions now being completed.

Every aspirant for public office must take a stand upon woman suffrage, said one official of the state organization, for every voter has a right to know the opinion of those who seek their support.

The suffragists hold that their showing at the last election when they carried 23 counties and polled more than 885,000 votes entitles them and those who have voted for them to serious consideration.

The 1916 campaign of the suffragists, Mrs. George W. Dibert, chairman of the Woman Suffrage Party of Pennsylvania, announces, will be vigorous and extend through the primaries and the ensuing election.

"We have decided," Mrs. Dibert says, "to conduct a non-partisan campaign as in the past and the only lines we will draw will be to separate those candidates and later those nominees who are for or against woman suffrage."

"Since our last campaign more women than ever are enthusiastic over our prospects, and men, who, at that time, were against us have announced a change of heart. Many who were apathetic have announced that they are convinced the majority of men and women in the State believe the demands of the suffragists are based upon justice and fair play. They realize that an opposition based chiefly upon the claim that women do not want to vote no longer has weight. Women who do not want to vote need not and the men realize that the old arguments are flat. With the more than 350,000 men who voted in our favor, together with the thousands more now convinced, we will win our battle when the issue comes to the polls again."

NEW CHANCE FOR SUFFRAGE RESOLUTION IN CONGRESS

According to a dispatch from Mrs. Frank M. Roessing, former head of the State suffrage association and now working in Washington, D. C., as an officer of the national organization, the Susan B. Anthony woman suffrage amendment resolution will have another chance for action in the current session of Congress.

This development, according to Mrs. Roessing's message to state suffrage headquarters at Harrisburg, Pa., is the result of a decision by the House Rules Committee to reconsider, March 28, its recent action postponing consideration of the amendment resolution until December.

Mrs. Roessing says she and other national officers are certain the final action by the committee will be favorable. In view of the fact that the passage of the resolution by Congress requires subsequent action by state legislatures, Pennsylvania suffragists are doubly interested in their local campaign to elect legislators who endorse suffrage.

Danish Women Voters Welcomed by Politicians.

Mr. Edward Brandes, of the Danish Parliament, recently welcomed the new women voters of Copenhagen into the arena of politics. He said: "In some quarters, it is held that Woman Suffrage will ruin the happiness of the home. That is only nonsense, for there will be a stronger union when the wife actively shares the husband's political interest. There will be no more a woman's party in Parliament than there is a man's party."

Another speaker mentioned that this had already shown itself at the municipal elections. "One never sees so many couples arm-in-arm as on the day of election—even before breakfast."

OUR IDEA OF NOTHING AT ALL.

Mr. Webb, of North Carolina: I am opposed to woman suffrage, but I am not opposed to woman.

O women, have you heard the news of charity and grace? Look, look how joy and gratitude are beaming in my face! For Mr. Webb is not opposed to woman in her place!

O Mr. Webb, how kind you are to let us live at all. To let us light the kitchen range and tidy up the hall. To tolerate the female sex in spite of Adam's fall.

O girls, suppose that Mr. Webb should alter his decree! Should he were opposed to us—Opposed to you and me! What would be left for us to do—Except to cease to be?
—Alice Duer Miller.

EVOLUTION

Said Mr. Jones in 1910, "Women, subject yourselves to men." Nineteen-eleven heard him quote, "They rule the world without the vote."

By nineteen-twelve, he would submit "When all the women wanted it." By nineteen-thirteen, looking glum, He said that it was bound to come. This year I heard him say with pride: "No reasons on the other side!" By nineteen-twenty he'll insist: He's always been a suffragist. And what is really stranger, too, He'll think that what he says is true.

South Plans Big Social Conference

New Orleans, La., March 31.—Elaborate preparations are being made for the fifth annual session of the Southern Sociological Congress, which is to assemble in this city two weeks hence. The conference this year, it is asserted, will surpass any gathering of its kind ever held in this country. The fact that the meeting will be followed a few days later by the Southern Conference for Education and Industry is expected to increase the attendance and add to the interest in the proceedings.

In the Southern Sociological Congress leading statesmen, educators, editors, lawyers, physicians, preachers, farmers, manufacturers, merchants, public-spirited and thoughtful men and women of all professions and from all walks of life, meet to discuss in a broad, practical, non-technical way the vital problems of social life in their application to conditions in the Southern States.

Though the organization is simple and the conduct of the meetings largely informal, its influence has been great, and it has gathered unto itself a large number of departments and subordinate organizations which look to it as a source of their inspiration and the medium through which their particular objects are best set forth and brought into relation with the whole social welfare of the South.

While the coming meeting will discuss problems of special interest to the South, the attendance will not be confined to citizens of the Southern States. The importance of such gatherings and their educational value have in the past attracted men and women from all parts of the United States and from numerous foreign countries, and the attendance this year is expected to be the most representative one in the history of the movement.

The program of the congress will cover four days. During the mornings there will be ten separate conferences in session simultaneously. The conference on "Government and Health," will be presided over by Dr. Seale Harris, of Birmingham, Ala. The conference on "School and Health," will be presided over by Dean J. L. Kesler, of Baylor University. The conference on "The Medical Profession and Health," will be presided over by Dr. W. S. Rankin, of Raleigh, N. C., a distinguished public health officer.

Unique in its way will be the conference on "The Press and Health," presided over by George Waverly Briggs, of Galveston. This conference will be for the purpose of developing ways in which the press may be enlisted to take a more active part in the struggle for better health. The conference on "Race Relations and Health," will be in charge of Dr. James Hardy Dillard, of Charlottesville, Va., and here will be discussed the great problem of bettering the health of the negro population.

In addition to those enumerated there will be a conference on "Temperance and Health," which will be a council of war for the temperance forces of Dixie, and which will be in charge of a special commission, of which Dr. Dinwiddie, of Washington, is secretary; another conference on "The Teaching of Sociology in Southern Colleges," presided over by Dr. G. W. Dyer, of Vanderbilt University; a conference on "Travelers' Aid Work," as a means of conserving health, to be in charge of Orin C. Baker, of New York, and a conference on "The Church and Health," presided over by Bishop Walter R. Lambuth, of California.

Of greatest general interest will be the organization of a new commission to have charge of a conference on lynching, the chairman to be Dr. C. M. Bishop, president of Southwestern University. The president of every university and college in the South will be invited to become a member of this commission.

More than 2,000 delegates are expected to attend the congress and among them will be the governors of several States and mayors of numerous cities. A number of foreign countries have been asked to appoint delegates to the congress, among them Mexico, Cuba, Guatemala, Panama, Nicaragua, Haiti, Salvador and Costa Rica. Several of these countries have notified Dr. J. E. McCulloch, the general secretary, that they will send delegates to the congress.

ACCUSED OF PEONAGE.

Atlanta, Ga., March 31.—The case of R. P. Biggers, a prominent farmer of Rockdale, who was indicted by Federal grand jury on a charge of peonage, was called for trial in the United States district court here today. It is alleged that Biggers worked negroes under bondage in violation of the law. A score or more witnesses have been summoned to testify at the trial.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

ROSS & WOODS

ON THE SCREEN

While the fairy tale by De La Motte Fouquet is the basis of the Bluebird photoplay "Undine," which will be the attraction at the Opera House on Monday evening, Walter Woods in working out the scenario, found the story could not be translated in full detail to the screen. When Director Henry Otto set to work upon the actual production he also discovered that little of the original could be used save the salient details of the plot.

Here in brief is given what has remained of the fairy-tale in photoplay form. The story begins in the realm of Queen Unda, mistress of the under-seas, surrounded by her nymphs, sylphs and mermaids, who disport themselves on the sands and in the waters of the deep. Bertholda, daughter of a fisherman and his devoted wife, has been stolen by the mermaids one day when the child is playing upon the sands. Queen Unda rules that little Bertholda shall be left to roam in the Enchanted Forest because her parents have taken fishes from the ocean, greatly to the annoyance of Unda and Neptune.

Undine's mother has committed sin with a mortal and to atone for this her little baby, Undine, is taken to the shore near the fisherman's cottage, to be discovered by fisherman and his wife. It is Undine's mission on earth to marry a mortal and thus atone for the sins committed by her mother in loving a handsome young huntsman, whose untimely death likewise robs Undine's mother of her own life.

Undine is welcomed by the fisherman and his wife, who considers she has been sent by the gods to take the place of their little Bertholda. Fifteen years pass. Bertholda has been adopted by the Duke and Duchess, and among those who pay her court at the Castle of Hubbrand, Undine was good. McNally replied: "I expect to build more barges." He already has to.

Don't Crowd Your Ad.

By BREEN.

Some advertisers make the mistake of trying to crowd a page of type into a few inches.

Display your ad. Make it catchy.

If you buy a few inches in a newspaper don't try to make them carry a couple of hundred words. Newspaper readers will not wear strong glasses to read small type.

When you decide to advertise a certain article pick out its best points. Then briefly tell what they are. Emphasize in big type.

Then you'll get results.

Fashion Hints By Margaret Mason

A tendril of Camilla's hair
Caressed her neck in manner rare

I begged of her the shining strand
And stroked it with a tender hand

Then when perverse she said no
nay

I snipped that golden curl away
But when Camilla saw it there

The lovely curl she used to wear
Her parting lips began to twitch
"There now," she sobbed, "you've spoiled my switch."

New York, March 31.—Little, alluring, wholly feminine, fascinating frivolous curls are coming in again.

To bob their wee fat sausage leathers in front of a pair of pink ears, to top in a bewitching cluster of tiny cockerels the crown of a dainty young head or to nestle in one sinuous tendril in that delectable hollow between a dimpled shoulder and a rounded throat.

Yes, they are coming in, but it is safe to predict that the most of them will easily come out again. Curls such as these are easier pinned in than grown in at the whimsies of the mode.

They are sure to be hailed with delight by all the purveyors of human hair who have suffered two lean years from the penchant for pealed cloffures an aurore, with no false hair allowed.

To be sure hair is still to be worn parted and slicked back from the feminine brow, but the softening influence of an occasional stray curl or two is a concession to the frills and ruffles and hoops and bouffants of the present old-fashioned fashions.

Particularly are the bonnets responsible for the recurrence of curls and the Shepherds' poke or Watteau shape is mother to the Nineteenth century which consists simply in drawing the hair back smoothly from the face into a cluster of soft puffs at the crown of the head with a few clustering inglets escaping at the nape of the neck.

Just to make it even more piquant a narrow black velvet ribbon is tied around the cluster of puffs on the head's pinnacle.

Another popular high head dress is the bob with the hair waved and parted in front with three short curls over each ear and a soft fan like puff for a top knot.

A low head dress with two fat sausage curls to bob over either ear has the rest of the hair drawn smoothly back into a tiny bun.

Flowers in the hair is to be another revived flogging vine fashion. And the roses of June will be worn in lush tresses or squalls, rosy or white garlands of the smaller flower, will crown the Lilies, Pansies and Myrtles of the human family.

The bands that bind will still continue on the job and the brow in the form of pivot edged ribbon or velvet with a little love knot behind.

Truly this mad preference for love knots and love locks augurs a certain variety and piquancy for the breach of promises cases of the near future.

To lighten the monotony of the eternal love letters with a love knot of rose ribbon or a tendril of burnished hair surely ought to influence all Jaded jurors for the new hair modes as well as the hair merchants and ribbon clerks.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Gray.
Faded Hair Dark and Glossy

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur properly compounded, brings back the natural color and shine to the hair when much grayed or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and trouble some.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

BANKERS' PREDICTIONS TO SOLDIER COME TRUE

London, March 31.—(By United Press)—An English army officer was starting for the front last year. He called at his bank to settle up certain affairs before departing.

"You'll be back soon with a wounded hand," said the bank manager. He was.

His wound healed, the officer made ready to go back to the front. Meeting the bank manager, he inquired: "Any more predictions?"

"You'll be gone longer this time," said the manager, "and when you do return, it will be with quite a bad wound in the leg."

This also happened. The officer was much surprised. Hunting up the banker, he inquired: "Since you know so much, why can't you tell me when the war will end?"

"It will end," said the manager, "on June 17, 1916, but I shall live to see it. I'll just about live until New Year's day and not much more," he died January 2.

The London Financial News, a very sober, unimaginative, reliable newspaper, vouches for this story.

GENERAL PETAIN REFUSES TO BE HERO OF FRENCH

Commander of Verdun Remains
A Plain Soldier-Suffers Hard-
Ships with Privates

Petain Has Risen From Colonel to General in Two Years—Rise Has Been Due to Merit and not "Pull"

BY WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Paris, March 10—(By Mail)—General Petain, the defender of Verdun and now in supreme command in that sector, after rising from a Colonelship in 19 months, thinks no more of climbing trees, sleeping in a hayloft or wading through ice cold water than he does of eating breakfast in the morning.

The latest hero of the French army refused to be a hero. He insists upon remaining a plain soldier. He usually makes his headquarters in one of the poorest houses of a war-zone village and instead of the usual flag sentries and buzzing motor-cars about his front door he stations a couple of men in citizen's clothes to keep off visitors, and lets it go at that.

Though 59 years old, he skips the rope 10 minutes every morning before breakfast. A shave and bath add to his appetite and so his day gets off with a flying start. He is willing himself to do anything he likes the humblest private in his command to do. If manoeuvres in the rain and mud are necessary, he often puts himself at the head of some company and walks with them bare-headed and minus waterproofs. Officers desiring a place on his staff can't have the job simply because they are chic; they must be able to do rough service, ride a bicycle, run a mile in record time, eat plain food and work any and all sorts of hours. One of the General's favorite ways of taking observations is to climb to the top of some high tree and see for himself what is going on. He can get to the top of such a tree quicker than any man on his staff. He watched the Verdun fighting in an armored motor car in which he dashed up and down the lines. He has had 17 chauffeurs in two months. He goes so fast he wears them out in a day or so.

Philippe Petain was born April 21, 1856 at Cauchy-la-Tour, department

The South Side Debating club held the third contest of their history last night in their building on South Side. The question was "Resolved that woman should have the right of suffrage."

Warren Kephart and James Milliron, were the affirmative speakers while Rudolph Dahlin and Joe Bunnell spoke for the negative. Good arguments were presented by both sides but the affirmative finally won out. The question for next week is "Resolved that immigration should be abolished."

of the Pas-de-Calais, or near the English Channel. His career was not brilliant, though he was an honor man of his class at the War college, for he was not made a Colonel until he was 55 years of age. This was his grade when the car came on and brought to light his real military value.

General Petain, soon to be 60 years old, a colonel less than two years ago, has won his way considerably on merit. He has never had a "pull" as proved by the fact that when the war began he was on the point of retiring from the army with a low rank, for a Continental army man.

The Moment You Try on the New Suits or Dresses

There'll Be No Question as to Whether You Will Buy—
Styles Are Unusually Attractive—They're Smart

to a Very Marked Degree

Here Are Suits at $19.75

Possessing an Unusual Amount of Style and Value

This is going to be a rather unusual season—several reasons will make it so. The manufacturers are making serious complaint that they cannot get cloths to make up the garments and the scarcity of dyes has increased the cost of fabrics as well, making it difficult to secure fabrics of certain colors. In view of these conditions, these suits at $19.75 ought to be very interesting to any woman who has set a price of $19.75 to $25.00 for her spring suit.

These suits at $19.75 are made of serge, gabardine, poplins and shepherd checks, and every one of them in a striking, stunning style.

Other Suits at $12.50 to $60
